

N. B. PITTS PATENTED SPINDLE, being the only one that does not require a screw in the side of the knob or mounting. Use of any lock furniture without such side screws would be infringement of the patent.